

Vidéos de sensibilisation sur les mesures de prévention de l'épidémie de Covid19 en baoulé, bhété, guéré, malinké, koulango, dida, agni, yacouba...

The image shows a Facebook post from a user named Steph Kra, dated 18 mars, 23:22. The post is titled "#StopCovid19 Messages de sensibilisation en langues locales #Baoulé, #Bhété, #Guéré, #Malinké, #Koulango, #Dida, #Agni, #Yacouba... (les vidéos sont dans cet ordre)". The text below the title reads: "À diffuser auprès des parents, amis et connaissances qui ne sont pas entraînés aux langues de Molière, Shakespeare et compagnie. Une idée de Laurence Christelle Anokoua." The post features a grid of six video thumbnails. The top row has two thumbnails: the first shows a woman in a patterned dress, and the second shows a man in a yellow shirt with a play button overlay. The bottom row has three thumbnails: the first shows a woman in a red top, the second shows a man in a patterned shirt, and the third shows a woman in a colorful patterned top with a "+4" icon. Below the grid, the post shows 121 likes and 25 commentaires, 2,2 K partages. At the bottom of the post is a "Partager" button. The Facebook interface includes a top navigation bar with the Facebook logo, a "S'inscrire" button, and fields for "Adresse e-mail ou mobile" and "Mot de passe" with a "Connexion" button. On the right side, there are language options: Français (France), English (US), Español, Português (Brasil), and Deutsch, along with a "+" icon. Below the language options are links for "Confidentialité", "Conditions générales", "Publicité", "Choisir sa pub", "Cookies", and "Plus", and a copyright notice "Facebook © 2020".

Pour accéder à la source de l'information, cliquez sur l'image

ci-dessus